

Sonoma County Bar Association presents

Along with the Education Committee

Chapter 7, 11, 13-What are all these Chapters?

Some basic principles, practices, and pitfalls of bankruptcy for attorneys.

Douglas Provencher

Provencher & Flatt

Mr. Provencher began practicing law in 1977 after graduating from Empire Law School in Santa Rosa, California. He started working in the bankruptcy field the same year and has represented individual and business debtors, creditors and committees in a variety of personal and business bankruptcy proceedings. The California State Bar Board of Legal Specialization certified Mr. Provencher as a specialist in Personal & Small Business Bankruptcy Law in 2002. The Super Lawyers of California has designated Mr. Provencher one of the superlawyers of Northern California in bankruptcy law since 2007. He conducts a monthly bankruptcy workshop for low-income persons through the Santa Rosa Office of the California Rural Legal Assistance office.
