

Along with the SCBA Education Committee presents:

A Conversation with
José Octavio Guillén
Sonoma County Superior Court
Chief Executive Officer

José Octavio Guillén, Chief Executive Officer of the Sonoma County Superior Court, will discuss some of the issues facing the courts in the current economy. Now, more than ever, the Court sees the partnership and collaboration with the Sonoma Bar Association not as a luxury, but a necessity to overcome all the challenges facing our justice system. He will discuss some of the key issues and priorities of the court, including:

- Workload and Impending Judicial Changes
- Jury Services
- Court and Bar Committees and Collaborations
- Budget Forecast
- Court Facilities
- Court Technology
- Court Security
- Procedural Fairness and Public Trust and Confidence

There will be time for SCBA members to contribute their thoughts and feedback, so don't miss the opportunity to become up to date about the court and provide your suggestions for meeting these important challenges.
