Hot Issues in Construction Defects

How is SB 800 working?

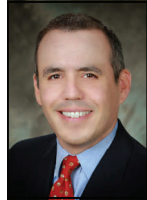

Wrap insurance and other insurance issues

Why isn't mediation and the special master process working as well as it used to?

W. Barton Weitzenberg

Mr. Weitzenberg specializes in construction defect cases and personal injury/wrongful death cases. Bart has devoted more than 35 years to representing individuals in their claims against insurance companies and large corporations. Bart has represented the owners of virtually every conceivable type of building with regard to virtually every conceivable type of construction defect. Bart was voted by his peers as a Super Lawyer of Northern California. He has also been recognized as one of the Best Lawyers in America.

David Berry

David Berry is a shareholder at Abbey, Weitzenberg, Warren & Emery and a litigator who helps home and building owners resolve construction defect claims. He also helps clients resolve business and real estate disputes. He earned the distinction as one of Northern California's Rising Stars in the legal community, which no more than 2.5 percent of eligible lawyers achieve.

Michael Green

Mike is a shareholder at Abbey, Weitzenberg, Warren & Emery. His practice is dedicated to representing plaintiffs in cases involving construction defects, personal injury/wrongful death, products liability, medical malpractice and governmental entity liability. Mike has extensive experience representing residential and commercial property owners in all aspects of construction defect litigation. Mike has been recognized in Northern California Super Lawyers, and the North Bay Business Journal's Top 40 under Forty.

Chuck Numbers

Mr. Numbers is a partner in the law firm of Meredith, Weinstein & Numbers and represents policyholders in complex insurance coverage disputes nationwide. The majority of Mr. Numbers' practice is devoted to resolving insurance coverage disputes arising from construction defect, trademark infringement, copyright infringement, misappropriation, environmental and asbestos claims. Mr. Numbers also has extensive experience with accountant and broker negligence matters as well as Directors & Officers and Errors & Omissions coverage disputes.
