

Along with the SCBA Education Committee and the Labor & Employment Section, presents:

Legislative Updates in Labor & Employment for 2019

Last year's “#Me too” movement, decisions by the U.S. and California Supreme Court on the validity of arbitration clauses, and continuing efforts to clarify the calculation of wages have resulted in a passel of proposed employment legislation in 2018 for the future. Join the Labor and Employment Law Section in discussion of laws signed by the Governor for 2019, as well as new regulations affecting labor and employment issues.

Valorie Bader
Welty/Welty, PC

Ms. Bader has been practicing 30 years in the areas of employment and business counseling, training, mechanic liens, and employment litigation. Her current practice includes sexual harassment training and other trainings, investigations, mediation and arbitration, as well as other alternatives for conflict resolution. Ms. Bader continues to counsel businesses and individuals and litigates in court and before administrative agencies such as the Labor Commissioner, the Employment Development Department, the Workers Compensation Appeals Board, Cal-OSHA, the Department of Fair Employment and Housing/ Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, CA Department of Licensing, CA Department of Insurance, Cal-PERS and other Retirement Associations and before the California State Personnel Board and other public entities. Ms. Bader has performed numerous workshops and trainings for the Personnel Perspective, Lorman Business Seminars and the Personnel Association of Sonoma County (PASCO), in diverse topics related to employment issues and has taught specific employment law classes for the Santa Rosa Junior College.
