

Along with the SCBA Education Committee and the SCBA Paralegal & Legal Support Section, presents:

Recent Changes to the Rules of Professional Conduct

The California Supreme Court approved 27 amended rules of professional conduct and added 42 more rules in 2018. The State Bar of California has adopted nearly 70 new and amended Rules of Professional Conduct effective November 1, 2018. This is the first overhaul of ethics rules for attorneys licensed in California in nearly 30 years! We will review the new and amended rules.

Bonnie Hamilton
Bluestone Zunino & Hamilton

Ms. Hamilton's practice includes employment litigation, constitutional law, real estate and construction law. Ms. Hamilton is a lifelong resident of Sonoma County, a product of its local public schools, She obtained her B.A. degree from Sonoma State University and is a graduate of the University of San Francisco School of Law. Her representation of public and private employers in state and federal courts encompasses everything from pre-litigation mediation and resolution through jury trial and appeal. She has successfully represented appellants and respondents in state and federal appeals. She enjoys passing on legal education to attorneys and non-attorneys alike. As a regular participant in the nationally-recognized "Law Day" (which has turned into "Law Weeks" in Sonoma County through its Bar Association), she brings significant legal and constitutional concepts to high school students. Ms. Hamilton has presented legal issues locally and state-wide on various topics. She also volunteers for the Court's Discovery Facilitator Program, Demurrer Facilitator Program, its Settlement Conference program, and sits on the Superior Court's ADR Committee. She served on the inaugural advisory committee for the Santa Rosa Junior College's Paralegal Program, and actively supports numerous community non-profit organizations. She has previously served as President of the Board of Directors for the Sonoma County Bar Association, President of the Richard M. Sangster American Inn of Court, and a Director for the Santa Rosa Boys & Girls Club of the Sonoma County Winery Foundation.
